Policy for Advanced and Slow Learners

Policy Guidelines:

Government Jagannath Mannalal Choudhary Mahila Mahavidyalaya Mandla, M.P. recognizes that the advanced and slow learners need to be identified without letting them to feel inequality among the students. Slow learners are required to be paid more attention and guidance in achieving their desired goals.

For Advanced Learners:

- ★ Advanced learners should be motivated to achieve higher targets.
- ★ They should be motivated to involve themselves in research-oriented programme, internship in known industries etc.
- ★ They should be provided with useful links and websites for study material.
- ★ To inculcate and develop entrepreneur and presentation skills. They should be motivated to participate in seminars, workshops, webinars, special lectures etc.
- ★ Besides motivating advanced learners to participate in extra-curricular activities, they should be promoted to participate in competitive exam.

For Slow Learners:

- ★ The college faculty should make their best effect to establish confidence among these learners as they are no less than others.
- ★ Slow learners should be specially advised and counseled by the faculty.
- ★ Their learning should be supported by audio and video materials.
- ★ Provision for remedial classes, revision classes and extra classes should be available for their better results.
