Report

Title: "Vote for Change": Nukkad-Natak on Voter Awareness

Organizing Agency: National Service Scheme Unit

Date: 25.01.2022

Location: Singhwahini Ward, Mandla

Number of Performers: 32

Number of Audience: 254

Objective:

To conduct a Nukkad-Natak (street play) on voter awareness, educating citizens about the importance of voting, and encouraging them to exercise their right to vote.

Play Highlights:

- Engaging storyline and dialogues on voter apathy and awareness
- Interactive performances with audience participation
- Key messages on voting rights, registration, and election processes
- Distribution of voter awareness materials

Audience Feedback:

- "The play was informative, entertaining, and thought-provoking!"
- "I learned so much about voting and its impact on our country!"
- "This performance inspired me to register and vote in the next election!"

Outcomes:

- Increased awareness about voting rights and registration processes
- Encouraged citizens to exercise their right to vote
- Fostered a sense of civic responsibility and engagement
- Reached a diverse audience, including first-time voters and marginalized communities

Recommendations:

- Organize regular Nukkad-Natak performances in public spaces
- Collaborate with local authorities to integrate voter awareness into the play
- Develop a traveling theater troupe to reach wider audiences

Conclusion:

The "Vote for Change" Nukkad-Natak was a successful initiative, educating and encouraging citizens to exercise their right to vote. By leveraging the power of street theater, we can promote voter awareness and foster a more engaged and informed citizenry.
