The Department of Political Science and the National Service Scheme Unit of Government Jagannath Munnalal Choudhury Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Mandla, Madhya Pradesh organised a wall painting programme focusing on Voters Awareness under the guidance of Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the Institution.

Objective:

To create a visually striking wall painting that raises awareness about the importance of voting and encourages citizens to exercise their right to vote.

Activity Highlights:

- Design and conceptualization by the N.S.S. volunteers
- Vibrant colors and powerful messages conveyed through the painting
- Depiction of diverse citizens casting their votes, emphasizing inclusivity and equality
- Incorporation of slogans and quotes promoting democracy and civic engagement

Participant Feedback:

- "The painting is a beautiful reminder of our democratic power."
- "It's amazing to see art being used to spread such an important message."
- "I'm inspired to share this with my community and encourage others to vote."

Outcomes:

- Eye-catching visual display that grabs attention and sparks conversations
- Increased awareness about voting and democracy in the community
- Empowered citizens to take pride in their right to vote
- Fostered a sense of community ownership and social responsibility

Recommendations:

- Replicate the project in other locations to amplify the message
- Engage local schools and youth groups in similar initiatives
- Utilize social media to share images and stories about the project

Conclusion:

The "Colours of Democracy" wall painting project successfully harnessed the power of art to promote voters' awareness and civic engagement, creating a lasting impact on the community.
