The National Service Scheme Unit of Government Jagannath Munnalal Choudhury Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Mandla, Madhya Pradesh organised a cleanliness Drive in college campus in collaboration with Internal Quality Assurance Cell.

Objective:

To conduct a comprehensive cleanliness drive at Azad Ward, promoting a hygienic and aesthetically pleasing environment for students, faculty, staff and the neighbouring community.

Drive Highlights:

- Division of participants into teams for focused cleaning efforts
- Cleaning of classrooms, corridors, cafeteria and outdoor areas
- Disposal of waste and recyclables
- Dusting and polishing of furniture and fixtures
- Beautification efforts, including planting of trees and flowers

Achievements:

- Significant reduction in waste and debris
- Improved overall cleanliness and organization
- Enhanced aesthetic appeal of the community
- Increased awareness about the importance of cleanliness and environmental responsibility

Participant Feedback:

- "I'm proud to have contributed to making our college a cleaner and greener space."
- "The drive was a great opportunity to bond with fellow students and staff."
- "I hope we continue to maintain the cleanliness and make it a habit."

Recommendations:

- Schedule regular cleanliness drives to maintain the momentum
- Encourage individual responsibility and ownership among students and staff
- Explore ways to reduce waste and promote sustainability in the college

The cleanliness drive was a resounding success, demonstrating the collective power of teamwork and commitment to a common goal. By maintaining a clean and hygienic environment, we can promote a positive and healthy learning environment for all.
