Title: "Protecting Innocence": Awareness Rally on Child Abuse Report

Organizing Agency: National Service Scheme Unit

Date: 09.09.2018

Location: Azad Ward, Mandla

Number of Participants: 35

Objective:

To raise awareness about the issue of child abuse, its effects, and the importance of prevention and reporting.

Rally Highlights:

- Powerful skits and performances depicting the impact of child abuse
- Personal testimonies from survivors and experts in the field
- Distribution of awareness materials, such as brochures and helpline numbers
- Candlelight vigil to honor victims and show solidarity

Participant Feedback:

- "I was moved to tears by the stories shared and I want to help make a difference."
- "I didn't know how prevalent child abuse was, thank you for educating me."
- "I'm committed to being a voice for the voiceless and reporting any suspected abuse."

Outcomes:

- Increased awareness about the signs, symptoms, and effects of child abuse

- Encouragement of community involvement in prevention and reporting
- Empowerment of survivors and their families
- Strengthened commitment to creating a safe environment for children

Recommendations:

- Organize regular awareness programs and workshops
- Collaborate with local authorities and organizations to provide support services
- Establish a confidential reporting mechanism for suspected child abuse cases

The "Protecting Innocence" awareness rally was a powerful call to action, shedding light on the critical issue of child abuse. By continuing to raise awareness and promote community involvement, we can work towards creating a safer, more supportive environment for all children.
